Please describe your personality.	I am a very meticulous person with an eye for detail. I pay attention to people and what they say. I am a bubbly person and can strike up conversations with nearly anyone. I wouldn't say I am the most extroverted person at a party, but I am far from an introvert.
Do you have any athletic abilities? Please list:	Being in the Marine Corps for 4 years allowed me to serve at my fullest physical potential. I have carried this on in my life even after being honorably discharged. Additionally, I have higher-than-average stamina and endurance. I can run up to 3 to 4 miles without stopping and training. I'm more so focused on strength training.
Do you have musical talents/play any instruments?	No
Do you have any artistic abilities/talents?	I'm mechanically inclined with a knack for restoration, whether that be for a home, vehicle, or something simple like a lamp. I use my creativity to take its parts and make them into something better. However, I'm not limited to these things. I conduct thorough research on anything that I'm working on to get multiple perspectives. I like to think of myself as a jack of all trades and a master of none.
