Character/Personality

Describe your character/personality?

I am a joyful individual who finds happiness in spreading positivity and making others feel at ease with themselves. I am constantly striving for personal growth and improvement. I approach life with an abundance mindset, believing that there is always enough to go around and that success is achievable through hard work and determination.

---

Describe your hobby/interests?

In my spare time, I love learning new things. I often buy online courses to explore my hobbies like editing, managing social media, and copywriting. Right now, I'm studying hard for the upcoming board exam to get my Registered Psychometrician License.

If a message could pass, what would you like to say to the intended parents?

I want to reassure you that everything will come in its own time. Even though it might be tough right now, as long as we see each morning and the day passes by, there's still hope. This journey to starting a family will be worth all the challenges. I know you've made sacrifices, held onto hope, shed tears, and felt happiness along the way. But trust that everything will be alright in the end.
